Sterling, VA - ReTested: The Story of a Post-Abortive Woman Called to Change the Conversation by Cheryl Krichbaum releases Friday, April 12 online and at Ridgetop Coffee & Tea in Sterling, VA.

“I was quietly crying. Daniel asked if I was okay. ‘No,’ I said.
‘Mom, listen to Christian radio,’ Joshua said. That’s one smart boy. I found KTIS at 98.5 FM. Listening to Christian music helped me calm down.” ~Chapter 7

The book is not just about abortion but also about dealing with family member’s mental illness and about worshiping God through all of life’s tests. Although the book series is about abortion, ReTested has a bigger story of how to thrive even when life’s tests are difficult.

The author explains how worshiping through song made a dramatic difference in how she responded to difficult circumstances. You’ll find interview questions and background information about worship, abortion, and mental illness at facesofabortion.com/retestedmedia.html

“After I picked up Joshua, we headed back to town. We often listen to worship music from my playlist or WGTS 91.9 FM, our local Christian radio station, while in the car. I noticed the peace on my son’s face as he listened and sang along with the music.” ~Chapter 13

ReTested includes over 100 Bible citations in the Appendix in addition to as many verses within chapters. You’ll also find references to additional resources, including Care Net, Surrendering the Secret, And Then There Were None, and the National Alliance for the Mentally Ill (NAMI).

ReTested is available for pre-order on Amazon and Barnes & Noble in hard cover, soft cover, and e-book. The audio book will be released at a later date.
